

TEMPORARY DWELLING INFORMATION

WHAT IS A TEMPORARY DWELLING?

The placement of a recreational vehicle (RV) or a manufactured home/factory assembled structure (FAS) temporarily on a property intended to alleviate certain hardships including: cases of continuous care/assistance, temporary housing for an employee working in connection with an agricultural use, temporary housing for an owner in the process of building a permanent home, or a caretaker looking after an existing dwelling or property.

THE PROCESS

After a completed Temporary Dwelling application is submitted, the application will be sent out for review and comment to local and State agencies. If there are no objections, the Planning Administrator will review the information submitted to ensure the proposal meets the requirements in Benton County Code 11.42.110 and either approve, approve with conditions, or deny the application.

CRITERIA FOR APPROVAL

Temporary dwellings authorized shall meet the following minimum criteria:

1. The parcel upon which the temporary dwelling is to be placed shall be of such configuration, and the temporary dwelling shall be located in such a manner to comply with the comprehensive plan and all applicable county, state and federal regulations, except density, lot size and the provisions in BCC Title 11.
2. The temporary dwelling shall be designed, constructed and maintained in a manner which will facilitate its removal on termination of the permit. Temporary dwellings shall include recreational vehicles and manufactured homes.
3. A current vehicular license, if applicable, shall be maintained.
4. No more than one (1) temporary dwelling per parcel shall be authorized.
5. No rent or other remuneration is paid for the occupancy of the temporary dwelling.
6. The public health, safety and general welfare will not be adversely affected.
7. Setback requirements applicable to other dwellings in the same zone must be met.
8. The temporary dwelling must be located no closer to the front property line than the primary dwelling.

APPEALS

Temporary Dwelling decisions may be appealed to the Benton County Hearings Examiner.

EXPIRATION

A Temporary Dwelling permit is valid for one (1) year or until the termination of the conditions authorizing the Temporary Dwelling, whichever occurs first. A Temporary Dwelling permit issued for a caretaker of a parcel shall be valid for no more than six (6) months.

RENEWAL

A Temporary Dwelling permit may be renewed according to the provisions outlined in Benton County Code 11.42.110(g).
