INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM (FA-3J)

Please follow these instructions as closely as possible. This form has been developed to comply with court rules and county-specific vendor payment policies/protocols. Deviation from instructions may result in delays in the issuance of your compensation voucher.

IMPORTANT This form, FA-3J, is for use by attorneys in claiming compensation for legal services they have rendered on behalf of OPD. Please use Form FA-2J if you are a vendor other than an attorney and wish to claim compensation for services you have rendered on behalf of OPD.

General Instructions

1. This form may only be used when services have been completed and compensation is due (please see the list of items that the person signing the form is declaring under penalty of perjury). Among other things, this form is not to be used to request funding authorization or to provide OPD with a funding proposal or services estimate.
2. If this is the first time you have submitted a Claim for Compensation to OPD, please make sure you have also submitted an IRS W-9 form. This form is necessary before your vendor account is created and no compensation can be made without such an account.
3. Submitting just a completed Claim for Compensation is not sufficient. All Claim for Compensation forms must include a detailed billing statement (such as you would send to any other client). Please see your contract for details on what your statement must include.
4. Please make sure this form is completed in blue ink. All boxes must be filled out (see instructions for specific boxes below).
5. Please refrain from sending any courtesy copies of this form by email or otherwise. Only an original of this form may be used by OPD for any purpose. Advance copies do nothing to speed the process along.
6. You should expect to receive compensation for your services within 30 days. Unless you truly believe something is amiss, please do not inquire about the status of your compensation before that time. If you must inquire, please use our email address: OPD@co.benton.wa.us. That is the best way to ensure that your inquiry is noted and responded to quickly.

How to Fill out the Form

1. Enter the full name of the attorney of record in the space provided.
2. If compensation is to be made to someone other than the attorney of record (such as a law firm), please provide the full name of the other person or entity. If an entity, please make sure any appropriate suffixes are provided and that this entity name matches what is listed on your submitted W-9. Hint: Mismatched W-9 forms are one of the most common and potentially time-consuming reasons for delayed compensation.
3. Provide the name (first and last) of the case for which you seek compensation (if applicable). If not applicable, please enter "N/A" instead of leaving it blank.
4. Check the appropriate box indicating the jurisdiction in which the case for which you seek compensation was filed.

5. Provide the case number of the case for which you seek compensation (if applicable). If not applicable, please enter "N/A" instead of leaving it blank. If you wish to have records associated with your claim sealed, then you are responsible for obtaining an appropriate court order and including the original with your claim. If such a court order accompanies your claim, then please check the "sealed" box. It is not sufficient to simply check the box without obtaining the court order – that will be insufficient to seal the record.
6. Specify the type of case/service for which you seek compensation. If you are claiming compensation for trial per diem or per docket compensation, provide the dates in the space provided.
7. If there is a contractual maximum compensation, enter it in this space. If you have obtained court orders/administrative approval amending/increasing this maximum compensation amount, then enter the cumulative authorized maximum amount.
8. Enter the cumulative total compensation you have previously claimed for this same matter.
9. Provide the amount of compensation you are requesting in this particular Claim for Compensation. This amount must match the amount listed in your billing statement.
10. The completed Claim for Compensation may be signed by either the attorney of record or an authorized representative from the attorney's law firm.
