I have had the following case activity this month:

 3.5 Motions

 3.6 Motions

 10.77 Motions

 Other Significant Motions

 The tally above should include cases where motion issues are researched and presented to the prosecutor, resulting in a positive outcome, without the need for actually filing the motion.

 "Other significant motions" includes all potentially dispositive motions as well as motions relating to significant issues relating to defense of cases. Other less significant motions (eg motions in limine, motions for recusal of judge, motions to enforce discovery obligations etc) should not be included in this tally.

* "Disposed at Readiness" encompasses only matters where either the matter is dismissed at readiness, or disposed of with an offer of an SOC or deferred made for the first time at readiness. Cases resolved with a SOC or deferred at other times before readiness should not be included in this count.
